Alix Costin

Glass and Ceramic

Alix Costin is inspired by her fascination with detail within nature and how she can capture it in craft. Her background in characterful drawing and illustration inspires her designs and processes. Mixing both glass and ceramics, she is exploring and pushing her unique ideas by creatively intertwining both medias using engraving techniques. Natural tones and warming colours evoke feelings of comfort and tranquillity, whilst the engravings across the surface of her pieces help to capture the beauty of nature.
