Emma Collis

Key To A Better Life

JPG images of a mix of traditional and digital work

Studying Animation in her final year at Uni, Emma is working on her final animation 2D short film called 'Key to a better life'. Her film is about a homeless man who finds an old abandoned piano and in order to escape his lonely, invisible existence, he resurfaces a long disused talent, that once rediscovered, leads to opportunities which offer him a better life. But can he escape the demons of his past?

Whilst Emma works to complete her film, she is very grateful to have the opportunity to submit a variety of her poster designs to hopefully engage people to watch her film. In addition, there are also pieces of her concept work, including a sketchbook page of sketches, character design and environment work. She is hoping viewers will engage with her process and art style.
