Simplicity

Sophie Wootton

Ceramic (porcelain)

Specialising in ceramics, Sophie is excited by the personal connection made between the maker and the material. Working with porcelain has provided challenges in her practice, while also allowing for a focus on the beauty of simplicity. The delicate nature of the clay inspires her love of organic forms and movement. Marbling stained porcelain within the pieces shows the direction of the clay as it is created on the wheel. This unpredictable element adds a beautiful juxtaposition with the simplicity of the white porcelain body.

Sale prices range between £24 and £48 per piece

Artist Bio

I am a design-maker specialising in ceramics. I am currently in my second year studying Design Crafts at De Montfort University.
