PAFNUTIY'S DREAMS.Turning back.Live

Pafnutiy's Dreams

an artistic live musical performance

During live performances, new material has accumulated and the reason to record Turning Back Live.

In 2013 they recorded their debut album "The Sandman", which was named the best debut and the best instrumental album by Exerty.by.

In 2016, they recorded their second album "Sunflower sutra". Apart from the instrumental music, the band has also composed songs to poetry of Belarusian and foreign poets.

Artist Bio

"Pafnutiy's Dreams" is a group from Belarus that works in a style close to nu-jazz.

Pafnutiy, the band's frontman, plays brass instruments and occasionally sings. He got into the very popular Lyapis Trubetskoy group when he was 18 years old. And when the group was at the peak of popularity, he left it because he wanted to make his own music and play in the orchestra, as well as completing his musical education at the Academy of Music.

In 2019, Pafnutiy gave a speech at TED x Talk, 'where to start learning music' He currently plays the French horn in an orchestra and writes music for performances. He says he will record the next album when the time comes.
