

Performance 2024

LCB Depot's exhibition & events programme highlights work from different creative practices every month.

In February 2024 the LCB creative programme focuses on Performing Arts with regular matinee performances, as well as our Leicester Comedy Festival programme from Jokes On Us. Find out about the performance times online @lcbdepot or <https://lcbdepot.co.uk/event/performance2024/>

A series of monologues and dance work (contemporary and improvised)

Laurie Beth Dexter

Laurie will be performing a dramatic monologue, Blackbird by David Harrower; then she makes the audience giggle with Leah's speech from DNA by Dennis Kelly.

She then uses her skills of Contemporary Dance and improvisation, as she shows the audience how to tell a story through movement. Laurie has acting and dance in her repertoire.

Laurie Beth Dexter is an amplify artist at Nottingham and attends events at Birmingham Repertory Theatre. She is involved in actor training with Curve Theatre, where she learns audition technique, script work and screen acting. She has gone on to train with Frantic Assembly at Brixton House Theatre where she took part in devising, creating building blocks and teaching workshops to her peers. This is where she decided to take acting and dance further by reaching out to Birmingham Hippodrome. She has taken part in workshops such as Contemporary Dance with Linden Dance, Fabric Dance Studios and Aakash Odedra Company.
