Ameerah Dawood

Oil, Acrylic, Pastel and Plaster on Canvas

Artist Bio

Ameerah is primarily an abstract expressionist painter.

Her paintings are intuitive, influenced by mood and energy. She considers herself an emotionally and energetically sensitive person often using textural materials as an outlet for these heavy feelings.

She mostly works on large scale pieces allowing the internal force to become physical onto the canvas. This combined with the intuitive selection of colour and mark making ensures her pieces embody the spirit although often chaotic but still harmonised.

Ameerah graduated from Manchester school of Art in 2020 and has since been based at Two Queens Gallery in Leicester's cultural quarter.

Her clients include The Official Selfridges and Ten London Architecture as well as local businesses.
