Gemstone jewellery

Bindi Red

Hand crafted gemstone jewellery designed to empower and transform. Each piece is a reflection of the wearer's individuality and intention. Every gemstone is selected for its characteristics and transformed into symbols of empowerment.

Artist Bio

Based in the heart of Loughborough, I handcraft genuine gemstone jewellery designed to be as unique as you are. Each piece is created in small, intentional batches, ensuring no two are ever exactly the same. My passion is to create beautiful, meaningful jewellery with high quality ethically sourced materials.

I have been creating jewellery for over 20 years for friends and family, but only recently started selling.

My first event was at Leicester Art House then LCB and many more since then.
