Lasercut accessories

Hello Sunshine by Jo Want

Hello Sunshine creates playful, laser-cut jewellery and cheeky Christmas decorations that raise a smile (and sometimes an eyebrow). From cat-shaped earrings to laser-cut insults for your favourites, each piece is designed by Jo in her Stoney Stanton studio and made from FSC-certified wood. With fun designs, witty details, and a splash of humour, her collection of earrings, pins and irreverent festive decorations is all about spreading a little sunshine (and laughter) this season.

Artist Bio

Hello! I'm Jo Want — aka the creative chaos behind Hello Sunshine 🌻 🐾

I make joyful, honest, sometimes-sweary stuff for people who like their accessories bold, their portraits fast, and their Christmas decorations... well, mildly offensive.

From cat-shaped earrings and 10-minute watercolour portraits to laser-cut insults for your faves, Hello Sunshine is where humour, honesty and handmade goodness collide. Everything's designed and made in my Leicestershire studio — usually with a strong brew on the go and something cheese-based within reach.

Hello Sunshine isn't about perfect. It's about real. It's about making things that make people laugh, cry, or say “oh my god, I NEED that.” It's for the misfits, the swearers, the sentimentalists, and anyone who's ever felt a bit lost and needed a reminder that they're still bloody brilliant.

So whether you're here for a custom portrait, a cat pin that looks suspiciously like your own furry friend, or just to share some joyfully inappropriate nonsense - welcome. You're in excellent company.
