Big Hat

Roque Collante

Roque Collante painted this lamp after staring at a lamp he bought and imagining how it would be far better with a really big lampshade instead of the stout shade he bought it with. Lampshades being more expensive than expected, he painted an imagined, ideal lampshade instead. Will this painting sell and fund a real life lampshade? Or will it remain only in painted fantasy?

Artist Bio

Roque Collante is a Leicester-based artist working across painting and occasional mixed media. His practice often focuses on the ordinary, using light, atmosphere, and a sense of unease to shift how everyday subjects are experienced.
