Sarah-May Johnson

Sarah-May Johnson is a woven textile artist whose work draws inspiration from the vibrant colours, patterns, and textures found in nature. She begins her creative process with intricate line drawings and colourful yarn wraps, using these smaller development pieces to explore and refine her ideas before weaving them into larger works. Many of these studies, capture the beauty of sunsets and memories of holidays in St Ives.

Artist Bio

Sarah-May Johnson is a woven textile artist based in Leicestershire. Her work draws on her appreciation for nature, capturing its colours, patterns, and textures through intricately woven pieces and complementary artwork. Each piece reflects an intriguing interplay between her artistic intuition and the structured, mathematical precision of the weaving process.
