Deva

Shivani Khoshia

Deva also known as Beings of Light overlight our landscapes, mountains and rivers. They protect and animate what we experience as nature, and they sing their light out to create the natural forms of our landscape, such as plants and flowers. We can create new forms of Deva with our imagination to further imbue our Earth with light and love.

The Golden Future

This painting brings to life some of the lost wisdom of Atlantis for us to draw upon today to create together a golden future here on Earth.

Artist Bio

Shivani is a painter. She uses her healing skills in meditation, visualisation, Reiki and the Akashic Records to relay messages from Spirit. She is interested in reviving lost wisdom from other timelines - messages, information and light codes for cultivating more harmony between us and with the Earth.
