Stuart Hicking

Everyday objects are enhanced with colour and texture in these giclee prints. Although from the artist's personal experiences, these familiar gadgets and tools have become iconic and hold memories for us all.

Artist Bio

I went to art college back in the 1970s, where I received a BA 1st (Hons) in Fine Art before completing an MA at the Royal College of Art in the film school. I then worked in film and video production and finally the education sector before early retirement.
