Harvey Ryan

These pieces are a part of an exploration of humour of Gen Z is marked by meta-irony, absurdism, and self-deprecation, nurtured by deep immersion of internet culture. The cat character, cats being iconic figures within internet culture, is used to pacify a generation-wide sense of dread and doom through memetic artworks translating a humorous comic-book style to sculpture, abstract digital image making and digital mixed media photography.

Artist Bio

Harvey Ryan is currently studying Fine Art in their third year at Loughborough University, exploring how the internet simultaneously nurtures and pacifies generation-wide pessimism towards themselves and the future.
